

A nature lover's oasis on the outskirts of Southport. Perfect for a walk with family or friends and suited to all age groups and abilities.

Route directions

- › Start at Dobbies Garden Centre Bentham's Way, Southport PR8 4HX
- › The walk begins on the far right of Dobbies Garden Centre. Leave the car park and walk over the wooden footbridge to 'Kew Woods'. Turn left onto the footpath.
- › After a short walk the pathway veers round to the right, follow this path which rises gently, until you reach the picnic benches. Continue on this path which then gradually slopes down towards the brook.
- › Ahead of you (and slightly to the left) there is an arched wooden footbridge (over Fine Jane's Brook), walk over it and turn left, carry on this route until you become parallel with the main road (Town Lane).
- › Part way down this stretch of the path you will leave this wooded area via an opening with metal gateposts to your left.
- › Cross over Town Lane (there is a pedestrian crossing here) and turn right towards the roundabout. Walk around the roundabout crossing it at Wight Moss Way.
- › Continue along the dual-use footpath until you reach a wooden zig-zag gate on your left which leads to a footpath.
- › Follow this footpath (which runs alongside Fine Jane's Brook to your right) for a short while, the path then curves around to the left.
- › At the end of the footpath you will pass through another wooden zig-zag gate, turn right and continue onto Moss Road. Cross over part way down Moss Road before the pavement ends and continue on this road until you reach the mini roundabout.
- › Cross back over Moss Road and turn right onto Bentham's Way at the mini roundabout, follow this route until you reach the traffic lights (Dobbies is on your left). There are pedestrian lights here, cross and return to Dobbies car park.
